DANNY MURPHY SIGNS WITH DUNN'S ORIOLES

Veteran Member of Connie Mack's Club Is Expected to Land Managerial Berth.

Philadelphia, March 5.-According to a announcement, made today from Baltimore by Manager Dunn, of the Orioles his club has purchased "Danny" Murphy, outfielder of the Philadelphia American League team.

Later Murphy denied that he had signed with Baltimore, but this denial was said to have been made in order to obtain a better price for his cafe in Norwich Conn., which he feared would probably be sold at a bad bargain if it became known that he was no longer a White

There was general surprise among the Athletics when it became known today that Danny would no longer be connected with the club. It was supposed that when Murphy left the Athletics he, like other veterans of the club, would become the manager of some team.

From Manager Mack's explanation of Murphy's being let go, it is suspected that Murphy's shift to the International League club may be only temporary, and a transfer to the Chicago Cubs in the Chicago C that eventually Mack will aid Danny in securing a managerial berth. The shifting of Murphy to Jack Dunn's ciub is likely to be one of the war measires to be adopted by the major leagues in fighting the Federals.
